

DESTINATIONS / POLAND / POMERANIA-TO DO RESTAURANT PIWNA 47, GDANSK, POLAND

Beautiful place with the most amazing menu I have ever seen. This place is just by the church in the city center of Gdansk. I could have spent hours just looking at the menu. Not for the choices of food but the nice pictures and flowers in the menu. And this restaurant also offers you live music!

PIWNA 47 FOOD & WINE

So they have a couple of tables outside that somewhat reminded me of the restaurants in France. Since we were quite a big group we got a table upstairs. Since we had been eating all day we were not that hungry so Mini and I decided to share one entree and one main course. For the entree, we chose the Beef Carpaccio with truffle oil, ricotta, parmesan, capers, red onions, and baguette. It was super good!

The problem was that the kitchen misunderstood us and we waited and waited for the rest of the food. When it didn't enter we finally started eating the Carpaccio and after we finished it the rest of the food came in fast. And that was just as good. For the main course, we chose the Caramelized ribs in honey, baked potatoes, salad and a selection of sauces.

FUN MENU AT PIWNA 47

Even if Mini and I chose the ribs we felt that the menu was really original and fun. One in our party chose the fish. It was Grouper with potatoes, spinach, green beans, radish, orange, and chocolate. Yes, chocolate and orange sauce. She didn't taste the chocolate so either it was a really small amount or they had changed it into something else. But either way, all of us were thrilled with the food.

And their dessert was just as amazing as the rest of the food. During our meal, there was a troubadour and he was really good. He was singing American classics on the worlds coolest guitar ever! This was also the place where we drank the goldwasser.

Jag misstänkte på samma sätt som restaurangen, haha. Tänkte att ni först ville dela en föratt, och att ni sedan ville dela en huvudrätt. ☺ Hur som helst så var det gott ut. Jag kan behöva återkomma till er för tips på bra restauranger i Gdansk och Sopot (fast inte bara superlyxiga karniske.?)

DESTINATIONS / POLAND / POMERANIA - TO DO MERA SPA IN MARRIOTT RESORT - SOPOT, POLAND

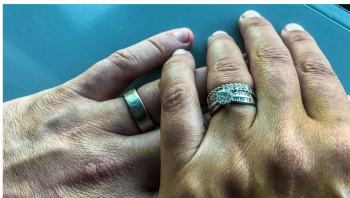

by Anna S. M. July 13, 2017 9 Comments

What used to be Mera hotel and spa is today Marriott resort and spa. The spa part is still named Mera Spa and we got to visit this place. During this time we also got pampered and treated with a hand massage with Amber. Who knew that hands could get this relaxed?!

MERA SPA - AMBER IN FOCUS

So what is different with Mera Spa compared to other places? Well at Mera Spa the focus is on Amber. They are both using and selling amber cosmetics. Apparently, the amber is really good for you and has a beneficial influence. They have loads of "regula" treatments too but the amber is what makes them special. My favorite part was without a doubt the color that I got on my hands and arms after the treatment. I was loving like gold!

You can get treatments and buy amber body peeling, body butter, shower gel and hand cream and more. You can choose between different kinds of treatments and explore the spa like it should be explored. A massage session provides the body with the benefits of negative ions contained in amber. By increasing blood flow, it stimulates energy, improves concentration and mood.

OUR EXPERIENCE AT THE MERA SPA

We got to get a hand and arm massage while at the spa. My masseuse was named Kasia B and she was perfect! I heard some of the other "complain" that the massage wasn't "enough" enough. I thought that my massage was perfect! The music, the smell, the relaxation was all so perfect. In all honesty, I didn't know that hands could get that relaxed. After the treatment, I sat down to write my impressions and it was hard for me to write. Not because I was sticky but because my hands were that relaxed!

While relaxing after the massage I got to be in a really nice room where I could drink water and just soak in the peace. What was funny was that all of the people there were playing with their phones. hahaha journalists these days! And a ps. I could not get my wedding ring off. I wouldn't budge so my hand massage included my jewelry.

THE TREATMENTS AT MERA SPA

A 30-minute massage costs 90 zloty (2017). That is just an example and there are a bunch of massages and treatments to choose from. And if you want to live large, you can book a night at the hotel. The price for a double room is between 700 - 900 zloty per night. And that price is quite far for the standard of the hotel. However we didn't spend the night here - we just had the best hand massage ever!

The hotel is located within walking distance to the city center of Sopot and has an amazing view of the ocean. I fell in love with the chairs of the hotel. If we weren't living in a motorhome I would've had them at home! They were so gorgeous!
